

'It's all about bridging the gap between the UK and the US.'

Ceize is an independent rapper/singer songwriter from South London. His EP entitled 'In The Lab' was released earlier this year as the first digital release of his music. He is a Hip-Hop artist that has created a buzz that has not stopped growing since 2015 with singles such as 'Gold Chain' featured by Link UP TV and played by the likes of DJ ACE on BBC Radio 1Xtra. Not only this, but Ceize has distributed thousands of mix-tape's on the streets of London by hand, and is working hard to get his music heard by the masses. He is growing a strong digital following and has seen an increase in engagement, streams and downloads of his music.

"My music is a mix of RnB, Soul and Trap and being a UK artist, there's a natural Garage/Grime element to my sound. My influences include UK pioneers and artists such as Skibadee, Shabba D, Wretch 32 and Wiley, followed by US artists like PartyNextDoor, Preme, and Bryson Tiller. It's all about bridging the gap between the UK and the US. Both have things to offer but my aim and dream is to merge the two".

"I come from a musical family, my dad was a part of Coxson Sound (the biggest reggae sound in the 70s). Being around my father inspired me and gave me a natural flair for music and the arts. I started rapping at the age of 16 and have been making music ever since. Through my music I express real life experiences, and evoke various emotions. My aim is to create timeless music and follow in the footsteps of those that I feel, moulded an era of great Rap and RnB. I want to use that same platform along with my musical creativity to inspire young people, and help them become gifted artists. My philosophy is that hard work and dedication will pay off, so I work non-stop on new music and dedicate my life to this thing called music"
